

OUR CHRIST IS BORN TODAY

(Music by William Steffe 1861, Words by Richard Bradley b. 1935)

The Prophets they did promise the a-coming of the Lord
They said the House of David would be honoured by the Word
The Bible it was written clear the coming was assured
Our Christ is Born Today!

*Glory, glory, Hallelujah,
Glory, glory, Hallelujah,
Glory, glory, Hallelujah,
Our Christ is born today !*

The angels in their glory do the infant birth proclaim,
Their trumpets and their cymbals ring aloud his glorious name
So all of goodly heart and mind this Saviour they acclaim
That Christ is born today !

Glory, glory etc.

The Shepherds they were tending sheep but saw a star so bright,
It showed the way to Bethlehem - a stable - what a sight !
for the Mother, Babe and angels too were bathed in glorious light
Our Christ is born today !

Glory, glory etc.

The wise men came in robes so bright with gifts so rich and fine
With gold and myrrh and frankincense they laid before the shrine
They left in adoration sure that this was now the sign
That Christ is born today !

Glory, glory etc.

So let us all with one accord proclaim the Saviour's birth
May all the choirs and choristers sing out for all their worth
With joyful hymn and caroling proclaim to all the earth
That Christ is born today !

Glory. Glory Hallelujah etc.
